Privacy Policy: Please read this policy carefully to see how we will treat the information that you provide to us. We will take reasonable care to keep your personal information secure and prevent any unauthorised access or unlawful use of it. We process all personal information in accordance with applicable U.K. data protection legislation.

How We Will Use Your Information: We will use your information to register you as a player in the League. We may send you information from time to time about the League. If you do not want to receive this information, please write to us.

Sharing Your Information: We have been asked to collect details of your ethnicity on behalf of The Football Association Limited ('The F.A.') and to provide your other personal information to The F.A. to allow The F.A. to carry out statistical analysis. The analysis will identify the demand for football in certain areas, trends for participation in the game and allow The F.A. to direct its resources to those areas of the game which are most in need, such as facilities and football development. This analysis will be carried out on a depersonalised basis and The F.A. will not disclose the results of the analysis except in an anonymous form. The F.A. will retain your information in a central database. You have been asked to provide details of your place of birth for de-duplication purposes to ensure that your details do not appear twice on the database.

Updating Your Information: If any of your information changes, you must inform us so that we can keep an accurate record of your information.
